Module 10c
DOCTOR, DOCTOR!

1. Read the dialogues and answer where did each person learn the cold remedy? Circle the correct answer.

1.

A: What do you take for a bad cold, Ted?

B: Oh, I have this great cold remedy. It always works. I chop up a bunch of garlic, put it in hot water, then drink it.

A: Gross! That sounds awful.

B: It is awful. I hated it when I was a kid. But my grandmother made me drink it every time I got a cold, and I always felt better a few hours later. It works for her, too. She's going to be ninety-four years old this summer!

A: Hmm. Maybe I should try it.

- a. his grandmother
- b. his mother
- c. his grandparents

2.

A: What do you think is the best thing to take for a cold?

B: I take that new cold medicine. You know, the one they advertise on TV.

A: I've seen that commercial. The one with the dancing pink pills, right?

B: That's the one. Well, anyway, I had this really bad cold a few months ago and I was watching TV when the commercial came on. So I thought, you know, why not try it? It worked so well for me. Now it's the only thing I take.

A: It sounds pretty effective.

- a. a radio commercial
- b. a TV commercial
- c. a TV show

3.

A: Do you have a good cold remedy?

B: Oh, sure. Chicken soup.

A: No way! Does that really work?

B: Have some. I promise you'll feel better.

A: Who makes the soup? Your mom?

B: Actually, my mom's a doctor, so she doesn't believe that chicken soup really works. So I make it myself. I just go down to the supermarket and pick up a can. I got the idea from a story I read in the newspaper. It was all about this guy who ate chicken soup for every meal, and now he's over a hundred years old.

A: I don't know. I never believe that stuff.
